5. (Confidential - LLM) Spoke with Jim Woolsey, on the staff of the Senate Committee on Armed Services, concerning the revision of the proposed amendments to the 1947 Act resulting from his most recent meeting with Mr. Houston. Woolsey felt that the narrowing of the new provision 102(g)(2) (personnel investigation authority) met his requirements nicely. I cautioned him that there might be a problem in modifying section 102(d)(4). The revised language and a short paper on the "Origins of CIA" were left for Woolsey who was tied up in a committee meeting.

8. (Confidential - JGO) Met with Garner J. Cline, Counsel, Subcommittee No. 1, House Judiciary Committee, and told him that approval had been granted for briefing on terrorism. I am to be back in touch with him on Tuesday to work out the details. [redacted] 25X1A has been advised.
